

Puente for President: Survey on Key Policy Areas

Please answer as many questions as you consider applicable. Your responses will impact my campaign platform. I will share this information via email and other outlines at another time. No personal identifying information will be collected.

1. What is your gender?

- Female
- Male
- Other

2. What is your age?

3. What is your highest attained degree?

- High School/G.E.D.
- A.A.
- B.A./B.S.
- M.A./M.S./M.B.A.
- J.D.
- M.D.
- Ph.D.
- Psy.D
- Other (please specify)

4. Check all of the area(s) that apply to you.

- Academic
- Administration
- Practice
- Public Service
- Research
- Other (please specify)

Puente for President: Survey on Key Policy Areas

5. Are you a member of the American Psychological Association?

- Yes
- No

Below are the key policy areas in education, practice, public interest, and science according to the American Psychological Association.

Please rank these areas according to how important you think they are to the future of psychology. For more detailed information on these key policy areas, click on the purple headings.

6. Key Policy Areas in Education

<input type="text"/>	Community health centers as a resource for the medically underserved
<input type="text"/>	Psychology's role in educational programs to improve teaching and learning
<input type="text"/>	Graduate psychology education and funding
<input type="text"/>	Federal program spending for the development of psychological practice and research
<input type="text"/>	Recruiting health care professionals for community-based systems of care through the National Health Service Core (NHSC)
<input type="text"/>	Shortage of qualified mental health professionals and funding

7. Key Policies in Practice

<input type="text"/>	Physician definition in Medicare
<input type="text"/>	Behavioral health information technology incentive payments
<input type="text"/>	Medicare payment

Puente for President: Survey on Key Policy Areas

8. Key Policies in Public Interest

Mental health service issues in an aging population

Mental health issues among children, adolescents, and families

Advocacy issues for a disabled population

Reducing health care disparities among ethnic minorities

Health Care Reform

The role of psychology in the prevention and treatment of HIV and AIDS

Advocacy for lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender issues

Addressing health care, education, housing, and employment for an impoverished population

The role of psychology in issues concerning trauma, violence and abuse

Advocacy for women's issues

9. Key Policy Areas in Science

Military service members, veterans, and their families

Federal spending for behavioral and psychological research

Prevention, etiology, and treatment of substance abuse disorders

Peer review and scientific funding from federal agencies

Promotion, funding, and research in collaboration with the National Institutes of Health

By clicking the submit button, you acknowledge that your responses can be used for campaign and research purposes, no identifying information will be collected.