

Puente for President: Survey on Presidential Initiatives

Please answer as many demographic questions as you consider applicable. Then proceed to rank order prior APA presidential initiatives. Many thanks!

1. What is your gender?

- Female
- Male
- Other

2. What is your age?

3. What is your highest attained degree?

Degree:

4. Check all of the area(s) that apply to you.

- Academic
- Administration
- Practice
- Public Service
- Research
- Other (please specify)

5. Are you a member of the American Psychological Association?

- Yes
- No

Puente for President: Survey on Presidential Initiatives

6. These are the initiatives chosen by the ten most recent APA presidents. Rank order these initiatives by dragging and dropping the choices or selecting the number next to the Initiative. Rank 1 as being the most important, 12 as being the least.

Integrative healthcare: Having psychologists, physicians, and other healthcare professionals working together to treat the whole person

Education and engagement for the next generation of psychologists

The advancement of psychological knowledge in society via attracting and retaining academicians and scientists

Providing psychological services to military personnel, veterans and their families

Continuing to foster a working relationship between Institutional Review Boards (IRBs) and psychological scientists

The role of psychology in interrogation

Using psychology as a means to address the threat of obesity

Using an evidence-based approach to address psychological issues associated with immigration

Promoting diversity with an emphasis on doctoral programs

The importance of providing psychological services for the homeless and conducting research related to the growing issue of homelessness.

The reciprocal relationship between psychology and math and science education as it relates to public policy

Translating psychological science for the public